NAMES.

A.

G.

L. Herniaria.

I. Centograna.

G. Harnkraut.

F. Boutonet.

S.

D. Duplengraen.

RUPTUREWORT.

PARTS

The whole

PREPAR

in the

N

PLACE.

Sandy Grounds, but not very common.

June

DESCRIPTION.

This small Plant spreads its Branches upon the Ground. The Woody, which with the Leaves are of a Greyish Green, set with whitish h Edges, The Flower Buds are small and Round, and opens into five thick with short hairs on the outside, and of a light Green in the inside, in the flower five white Chives, The Summits 5 are very Large for the of the Flower with a Yellow Farina, 7 The Style on the Seed Vess short and Double, 8 a Seed, 9 is the Cup or what remains on the Stalk Flower is taken off. All the Parts at 2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10 are M N.B. the Flowers on the Plant are Drawn too Large.

VIRTUES.

It has been thought a Specifick in Ruptures it is drying and Bin

T. Sheldrake delin.

M. H. S.